

APD Policy CHAPTER 5 CODE OF CONDUCT	ABERDEEN POLICE DEPARTMENT POLICY AND PROCEDURE MANUAL
This policy is for internal use only and does not enlarge an employee's civil liability in any way. The policy should not be construed as creating a higher duty of care, in an evidentiary sense, with respect to third party civil claims against employees. A violation of this policy, if proven, can only form the basis of a complaint by this department for non-judicial administrative action in accordance with the laws governing employee discipline.
Applicable State Statutes:	RELATED POLICIES: Chapter 17
DATE IMPLEMENTED: June 15, 2020
SPECIAL INSTRUCTIONS:	NUMBER OF PAGES: 33

I. PURPOSE

- A. Establishes a code of conduct for the employees of the Aberdeen Police Department.
- B. Articulate legal and proper conduct while defining illegal behavior or misconduct on the part of employees.
- C. Reiterate the City of Aberdeen's policy prohibiting sexual and other forms of unlawful harassment in the workplace.
- D. Set guidelines for receiving and administering civil process procedures.
- E. Provides a written directive for governing bias-based policing.
- F. An agency and its personnel could be subject to liability in federal court for failing to disclose to a prosecutor any evidence that may be favorable to a defendant. The purpose of this policy is to ensure that agency personnel comply with the landmark United States Supreme Court decisions of Brady v Maryland (1963) and Giglio v United States (1972) and their progeny.
- G. The purpose of this policy is to establish guidelines governing Extra Duty Details and Outside employment by employees of this agency.
- H. The purpose of this policy is to prohibit sexual harassment and discrimination within this agency. The policy also provides for the reporting and department response to sexual harassment or discrimination.

- I. Law enforcement officers are empowered with authority by their government to protect the public from criminal activity. When an officer abuses this authority for sexual purposes, and violates another person, the officer not only commits a crime against the victim, but also damages the credibility and trust of the entire law enforcement community with the public. The purpose of this policy is to caution all officers that any violation of the public trust involving sexual misconduct will result in severe consequences including prosecution to the fullest extent possible.

III. RULES AND REGULATIONS

A. LAW ENFORCEMENT CODE OF ETHICS

As a Law Enforcement Officer, my fundamental duty is to serve mankind; to safeguard lives and property; to protect the innocent against deception, the weak against oppression or intimidation, the peaceful against violence or disorder; and to respect the constitutional rights of all men to liberty, equality and justice.

I will keep my private life as an example to all; maintain courageous calm in the face of danger, scorn or ridicule; develop self-restraint, and be constantly mindful of the welfare of others.

Honest in thought and deed in both my personal and official life, I will be exemplary in obeying the laws of the land and the regulations of my Department. Whatever I see or hear of a confidential nature or that is confided to me in my official capacity will be kept ever secret unless revelation is necessary in the performance of my duty.

I will never act officiously or permit personal feelings, prejudices, animosities or friendships to influence my decisions. With no compromise for crime and with relentless prosecution of criminals, I will enforce the law courteously and appropriately without fear of favor, malice or ill will, never employing unnecessary force or violence and never accepting gratuities.

I recognize the badge of my office as a symbol of public faith and I accept it as a public trust to be held so long as I am true to the ethics of the police service. I will constantly strive to achieve these objectives and ideals, dedicating myself to my chosen profession, Law Enforcement.

B. CODE OF CONDUCT

Consistent with law, it is the policy of this agency to establish and promulgate to all members the rules and regulations for the operation of the Police Department and guidance for its members.

A code of conduct is necessary for the achievement of organizational goals. Primary among these goals is a requirement that all members of the Department adopt a general standard of conduct both on and off duty consistent with the professional standards of the law enforcement community, and the values and mission of the Department. The Aberdeen Police Department adopts the "LAW ENFORCEMENT CODE OF ETHICS" as the recommended standard of conduct expected of its officers.

The Department acknowledges that circumstances and events may exist which, in the best interest of the member, department and community, preclude sworn members, while off duty, from personally taking official police action. Consistent with this, the Department cautions sworn members, when off duty, to use discretion when invoking police powers, particularly involving the use of a firearm. This in no way, however, relieves a sworn member of his obligation to notify the on duty watch commander if police power is invoked while off duty. At the time of their employment, all personnel will be given the oath of office and a copy of the Police and Procedure Manual. Each employee will review and acknowledge that they understand the Code of Ethics. A copy of the Oath of Office will be placed in their personnel file.

3. Violation of Law, Rules and Regulations. The violation or attempted violation by a department member of any Federal, State, County or Municipal law or ordinance is prohibited. Members shall observe and obey all laws and ordinances, all rules and regulations of the department and all directives or special orders of the department.
 - a. Establishing Elements of Violation. Existence of facts establishing a violation of a law, ordinance, or rule, is all that is necessary to support any allegation of such as a basis for a charge under the section. It is not necessary that a formal complaint be filed or sustained. Nothing in this Manual prohibits disciplining or charging members merely because the alleged act or omission does not appear herein, in departmental orders, or in laws and ordinances within the cognizance of the department.
 - b. Reporting Violations of Laws, Ordinances, Rules, or Directives. Members knowing of other members violating laws, directives, ordinances, or rules of the department, or disobeying orders, shall report same in writing as soon as practical to the Operations Division Commander through official channels. If the member believes the information is of such gravity that it must be brought to the immediate personal attention of the Chief of Police, official channels may be bypassed.

4. Insubordination. An officer's or civilian member's failure or refusal to obey a lawful order issued by a supervisor or acting supervisor is prohibited.
5. Unsatisfactory Performance. Employees shall maintain sufficient competency to properly perform their duties and assume the responsibilities of their position.
 - a. Unsatisfactory performance may be demonstrated by the following criteria which are not all inclusive:
 - 1) Lack of knowledge of the application of laws required to be enforced.
 - 2) Unwillingness or the inability to perform assigned tasks, or to carry out duties in a manner required by laws or rules.
 - 3) Failure to take appropriate action on any situation deserving police action.

 - 1) Obedience to Unlawful Orders. Obedience to an unlawful order is never a defense for an unlawful action; therefore, no member is required to obey any order, which is contrary to federal or state law or local ordinance.
 - 2) Responsibility for refusal to obey rests with the member who shall be required to justify his action.
 - b. Obedience to Unjust or Improper Orders. Members who are given orders that they feel to be unjust or contrary to directives, rules and regulations, must first obey the order to the best of their ability and then proceed to appeal as provided. It is acceptable for a member to ask for clarification about an order or if time allows, express concern about the order.

- c. Conflicting Orders. To permit effective supervision, direction, and control, employees shall promptly obey any lawful order of a supervisor, including any order relayed from a supervisor by an employee of the same or lesser rank. In the event an employee is given two different orders that may conflict, the last order given shall be complied with unless the order is retracted or modified. If an employee receives conflicting orders, the employee must inform the person giving the last order of the conflict of orders. The person giving the conflicting order should then resolve the conflict by retracting, modifying, or requesting the employee to comply with the latest order. In the event the conflicting order is not altered or retracted, the employee shall not be held responsible for disobedience of the order or directive previously issued.
- d. Reports and Appeals – Unlawful, Unjust, Improper Orders. A member receiving an unlawful, unjust or improper order shall at first opportunity, submit a report to the Chief of Police through official channels. This report shall contain the facts of the incident and the action taken. Appeals for relief from such orders may be made at the same time. Intra-departmental action regarding such an appeal shall be conducted through the Office of the Chief of Police.

- 7. Conduct Toward Supervisor and Subordinate Officers and Associates.

We are committed to maintaining a harmonious working environment. Comments in the workplace that reflect a bias or prejudice concerning race, color, religion, sex, sexual orientation, national origin, disability, age or veteran status violate our policy. To maintain a harmonious working environment, each one of us must refrain from making offensive and derogatory slurs, insults, remarks and jokes about anyone's protected status. What people feel and what they reveal are often different: the person you tell an inappropriate joke to could be offended by it but laugh anyway. We do not want anyone to be offended by comments and jokes based on protected status. From this point forward, each one of us must demonstrate a commitment to follow this policy. I know that I can count on your cooperation. If, however, someone chooses to ignore their commitment to this policy, that act will result in consequences. Vigorous enforcement of our policy against offensive and derogatory comments is necessary. Therefore, from now on: If biased comments are made by anyone, immediate and appropriate remedial action will be taken upon learning of the situation. This will include immediately investigating all complaints and taking appropriate corrective action. We will respond to biased comments, made in our presence but in languages other than those we understand, when the comments are translated for us. If you believe anyone is in violation of this policy, report the facts to your Division Commander or the Cities HR Director, so that the matter can be investigated and appropriate action taken. Members shall treat supervisor, subordinates and associates with respect. They shall be courteous and civil at all times in their relationships with one another.

When on duty and particularly in the presence of other members or the public, officers should be referred to by rank.

8. Public Criticism. Members shall not publicly criticize instructions or orders they have received, Department policies, operations, or staff in a defamatory, obscene, unlawful or untruthful manner. Criticism that tends to impair the operation of the Department by reducing organizational efficiency and discipline is also prohibited.
9. Moral Conduct. Any officer directly involved in any investigation cannot become emotionally or sexually involved with any witness, complainant, suspect, defendant or victim, from the time the case becomes known to the Police Department to the final disposition of the case. Every member shall maintain a level of moral conduct in his/her personal life that is in keeping with the highest standards of the law enforcement profession. No member shall be a participant in any incident involving moral turpitude which compromises or has the potential to compromise his/her ability to perform as a law enforcement officer or employee of the Aberdeen Police Department, or causes the Department to be brought into disrepute.
10. Loyalty. Loyalty to the Department and to departmental associates is an important factor in departmental moral and efficiency. Members shall maintain a loyalty to the Department and their associates as is consistent with the law and professional ethics.
11. Cooperation. Cooperation between the ranks and units of the Department is essential to effective law enforcement. Therefore, all members are strictly charged with establishing and maintaining a high spirit of cooperation within the Department.
12. Assistance. All members are required to take appropriate police action toward aiding a fellow peace officer exposed to danger or in a situation where danger might be impending.
13. General Responsibilities. Within the City of Aberdeen, officers shall at all times take appropriate action to:
 - a. Protect life and property;
 - b. Preserve the peace;
 - c. Prevent crime;
 - d. Detect and arrest violators of the law; and
 - e. Enforce all federal, state, and local laws and ordinances coming within Department jurisdiction. (See Agency Jurisdiction)
14. On Duty Responsibilities. Members of the Department shall, at all times, respond to the lawful orders of superior officers and other proper authorities as well as calls for police assistance from citizens. Proper police action must be taken whenever required. The administrative delegation of the enforcement of certain laws and ordinances to particular units does not relieve members of the unit from the responsibility of taking prompt, effective police action within the scope of those laws and ordinances.

15. Questions Regarding Assignment. Members in doubt as to the nature or detail of their assignment shall seek such information from their supervisors by going through the chain of command.
16. Knowledge of Laws and Regulations. Every member is required to establish and maintain a working knowledge of all laws and ordinances in force in the City, the rules and policies of the department and the orders of the department and divisions thereof. In the event of improper action or breach of discipline, it will be presumed that the member was familiar with the law, rule or policy in question.
17. Performance of Duty. All members shall perform their duties as required and directed by law, departmental directive, policy, or order, or by order of a supervisor or senior member. All lawful duties required by competent authority shall be performed promptly as directed, notwithstanding the general assignment of duties and responsibilities.
18. National Colors and Anthem. Uniformed members will render customary honors to the United States national colors and anthems, as well as other foreign governments' colors and anthems as conditions permit. Customary honor for officers in uniform with a hat on is to stand at attention and salute the flag or face the source playing the national anthem. Officers without a hat should stand at attention with their right hand over their heart.
19. Untruthfulness/False Statement. The very character of this Department as well as its reputation depends largely on the integrity of its personnel. Integrity, as defined by this department is the state of being of sound moral principle, honest, (truthfulness), and sincerity.

All employees, civilian and sworn, shall be truthful whether under oath or not. Personnel shall not make false statements, verbal or written, nor shall personnel alter or change any official departmental or other document which would render the content inaccurate.

Any employee (officer or civilian) who is found to have committed such falsity shall immediately be disciplined up to and including dismissal, in accordance with applicable law and department policy.
20. Workplace Violence. We are committed to maintaining a working environment free from workplace violence. To maintain a violence-free working environment, it is vital that each of us watch for and report any threat of violence to us so that a prompt and thorough investigation can be conducted. A violent act may cause severe physical, mental and emotional damages. We do not want anyone to experience the potential consequences of someone not reporting a threat. Not taking threats or inappropriate behavior seriously enough is unreasonably risky. Thinking or wishing this problem would just go away does not work. From this point forward, each one of us must demonstrate a commitment to our safety by reporting any threat of violence. I know that I can count on your cooperation. However, corrective action will be taken if someone fails to report a threat and harm is done. Confirmed threats by employees will result in appropriate corrective action or discharge. Recognize that stress can lead to violent outbursts. If you would like assistance with stress management, let us know.

In the event the officer cannot complete the report because of an illness, multiple reports taken during a work shift, or other unforeseen circumstance the officer shall contact their on duty superior for approval to complete the report at a later time. The on duty supervisor approving this shall be responsible for communication of the incomplete status of a report to the appropriate Captain, records staff or states attorney.

7. Absence Without Leave. Every member who fails to appear for duty at the date, time, and place specified for so doing without the consent of a supervisor or commander is "absent without leave." Such absences within the period of one day must be reported in writing to the Division Commander. Absences without leave in excess of one day must be reported in writing to the Chief of Police.
8. Reporting Sick Leave. Whenever a member becomes ill and cannot report for work the member is to notify their supervisor or in the absence of the supervisor, the Watch Commander, if possible, at least two hours prior to duty time. Employees shall report to their Division Commander when an injury or illness requires them to be absent for three or more days. The Division Commander may require a medical report when an employee misses more than three days of scheduled work. The use of sick leave without just cause, or the furnishing of any false information regarding a member's physical condition, may result in disciplinary action. Members claiming physical or mental incapacity relating to their employment may be requested to submit to a Department referred physician examination. For Covid 19 related sickness procedures see attachments for folder on covid memos.
9. Inspections. From time to time, the Chief of Police may call for full dress inspections of the department or any part thereof. Members directed to attend such inspections shall report in the uniform prescribed with the equipment specified. Unauthorized absence from such inspection is chargeable as "absent without leave."

11. Physical Fitness for Duty. All members of the department shall maintain good physical condition which allows them to perform the duties of their job description.
12. Consumption of Intoxicants Off Duty. Members shall not consume intoxicants while off duty to the extent that evidence of such consumption is apparent when reporting for duty. They shall not at any time, including off duty consume intoxicating beverages to the extent that such consumption results in obnoxious or offensive behavior which discredits the department, or to the extent that such consumption renders them unfit to report for their next regular tour of duty. If a member has been consuming intoxicating beverages, and receives a call for duty, that member shall immediately notify the Watch Commander of such usage. If the member feels his consumption is to the extent where it affects his ability to respond, the member should inform the Watch Commander he is unable to comply with call for duty. Any member that arrives at a scene that has consumed intoxicants 12 hours prior to the call shall submit to preliminary breath test to the on scene supervisor to ensure his ability is not impaired.

13. Intoxication. Members shall not at any time consume, purchase, or be under the influence of alcohol or other intoxicating substances while on duty other than in an authorized capacity. While off-duty, employees shall not enter/remain in the station while intoxicated unless approved by the Watch Commander.

The possession of illegal controlled substances by a member while on or off duty is prohibited, except in the performance of duty. Property or evidence related to controlled substances will not be kept in personal lockers, vehicles, desks, or secured in any location other than an authorized property locker or designated property processing work space.

While on duty, a member is not to use or be under the influence of any medication that impairs or compromises their ability. If a member is using medication that impairs or compromises their ability to perform their regularly assigned duties and responsibilities, the member must notify their immediate supervisor. The supervisor shall then notify the Chief and or the Command staff about the circumstances so it can be reviewed with the Human Resources Department for recommendation. Any light duty assignment for that member must be approved by command staff. If a light duty is not an option, the member will be sent home until the member is no longer impaired and his status is reviewed by the Chief.

16. Prescription Drugs. Law Enforcement services are expected to be delivered by employees who are physically and mentally prepared for whatever might be required to satisfactorily perform assigned police duties. It is essential that all police employees who will or might be called upon to act in an enforcement capacity, control prisoners, or transport persons in an agency vehicle be in a position to act in a professional and competent manner. It is well known that law enforcement employees may be taking prescription drugs, which have been legitimately prescribed to them for medical/psychological needs. This policy is designed to ensure that the employee, the community, and other officers are not impacted by the effects of such medication.

- a. Procedure: Agency employees are divided into two categories for purposes of this policy:
- 1) Enforcement Employees: those employees who are either in a direct enforcement capacity or who may be called upon to act in an enforcement capacity, are assigned to control prisoners, and employees who may be called upon to transport persons in agency vehicles. This includes all sworn personnel unless the employee is on restricted duty and prohibited from carrying firearms. Non-sworn employees who fit in this category include employees who engage in some form of enforcement duty, detention duties, drive agency vehicles, or transport persons being detained.
 - 1) Non-Enforcement Employees: The function of non-enforcement employees does not normally place them in a position where the use of prescription drugs will compromise their own safety, the safety of fellow employees, or the safety of citizens. These employees are not subject to this policy and are not required to notify the agency when they are taking prescribed medications unless they operate a motor vehicle in the performance of their duties for the Agency.
 - 2) All Employees designated as Enforcement Employees are subject to the provisions of this policy.
 - 3) Enforcement Employees who have been prescribed drugs by a medical, psychological or other professional resource person shall provide this agency with a document from the person prescribing the medication which:
 - (a) Identifies the specific drug, and
 - (b) Expressly concludes whether the drug will or will not impair the employee's ability to perform normal and specifically assigned law enforcement tasks.
 - (c) The employee shall provide this notice from the professional resource who prescribed the medication and which includes a copy of the prescription drug label to the agency supervisor designated by the chief.
 - (d) This notice should be provided to their chain of command prior to reporting for their assigned duty or regular shift assignment.
 - 4) Agency Response: The designated agency person shall determine whether the prescribed drug is:
 - (a) Listed as an authorized medication not requiring any assignment consideration;

- (b) Listed as a medication which requires assignment alteration; or
- (c) A drug which is not listed
- (d) In cases where the drug is not listed on either the authorized duty or restricted duty list, the designated employee will contact the predetermined pharmaceutical professional who shall provide a conclusion as to which category the prescribed medication belongs.
- (e) Employees who are prescribed medications listed on the unrestricted list will be allowed to continue their normal assignment.
- (f) Employees who are prescribed medication which require an alteration of assignment will be advised that they are not authorized to perform enforcement function or off-duty details. These employees shall be immediately reassigned to a restricted assignment that will not place them in a position to encounter enforcement duties as defined by this policy. During the period in which they are required to take the prescribed medication, their authorization to carry a department issued firearm and operate agency vehicles will be suspended.
- (g) The documentation of the medication use will be filed in a secure file in the Human Resources Department until such time that the medication is no longer being used by the employee and the civil liability statute of limitations has passed. Following that period, all documentation of medication use by the employee shall be destroyed. The designated agency employee shall perform an annual audit of this file to ensure that it is current and that the required purging has been completed.

IV. SEXUAL HARASSMENT/SEXUAL DISCRIMINATION

We are committed to taking all steps necessary to maintain a workplace free of harassment and intimidation of any type, including sexual harassment. To maintain a quality working environment for all members or potential members of this Department so that they may work free from intimidation, humiliation, insult or be subjected to offensive physical or verbal abuse or actions of sexual, ethnic, racial, gender-based or religious nature, the Aberdeen Police Department enforces the Employment Policies, Practices and Sexual Harassment policies adopted by the City of Aberdeen and will not tolerate any sexual, ethnic, racial or religious harassment by its members. I encourage you to review it at your earliest convenience.

When a person's sexual attentions to another are unwelcome, and that fact has been conveyed, continued attention becomes harassment.

"Unwelcome" means an employee did not solicit invite or otherwise encourage it and regarded the conduct as undesirable or offensive.

We want all our employees to know how to clearly establish that behavior is unwelcome. State what you don't want. Be brief and direct. Do not use humor or offer excuses. Regarding request, say: "I'm offended by that and I want it stopped now." If the behavior continues, report it to your direct supervisor, your Division Commander, or the City of Aberdeen's HR Director, so that the matter can be investigated, and appropriate action taken.

The City's policy would be violated if anyone in a position of power and authority engaged in sexual advances through threats or rewards. Examples include a supervisor: Threatening an employee for failing to go along with sexual advances with discipline or discharge, a blocked promotion or negative performance review. Offering rewards for accommodating sexual advances such as promotion, raise or choice assignment.
